—It costs five dollars a year to own a dog in Colfax.
—The Merwanjee Framjee finished loading yesterday.
—Port Townsend is out of debt and has money in the treasury.
—The Ashland woolen mills used 100,000 pounds of wool in '81.
—The Umatilla county clerk issued ninety-seven marriage licenses in '81.
—Of course you are going to the social at E. C. Holden's this evening.
—Geo. Burchard, jr., gives notice of reward for the recovery of his father's body.
—Isaac Foster's store will be closed to-morrow in consequence of death in his family.
—'Tis whispered in Portland that an oleomargarine factory is located on Ash street.
—The British bark Tropic sailed for the Columbia from Liverpool on the 28th ult.
—The British bark Glanpadam has cleared for Queenstown. She has 59,730 bushels of wheat on board.
—The O. & C. R. R. Co.'s assessment in Lane county has been reduced from $5,600 to $4,000 per mile.
—The S. F. Chronicle of the 2d inst. hand gives a long list of ladies who would not receive on New Year's.
—Wm. Howe, whose ship is near Captain Gray's dock, is turning out some very nice boats from his place.
—The Oregon started out to sea at 1:30 yesterday afternoon. The Stato got in in the morning and proceeded up stream.
—The proper constructing of city ordinance number 126, passed June 30, 1876, seems to be a question among city officials.
—Yesterday was a lively day; everybody got around lively, the sun shone bright and the air felt keen; ice formed in shady places, and wood was in demand.
—Henry Shaw, jr., of Deep river, is having a saw built by Mr. Jenkins. She will be 51 feet over all, 17 feet beam. She will be launched the 5th of next month.
—The Young Men's Western Band, who discoursed sweet music under our window last Wednesday night, will please accept thanks for the same. It was appreciated.
—Villard is said to carry his editorial push into railroad construction. He recently bounced a superintendent on the Pacific side with these words: "Your gait don't suit; you lose the company a dollar in trying to save two bits."

—The Young Men's Western Band as at present organized has, as leader, D. A. McIntosh; G. C. Richardson, cornet; Edgar Clough, alto; Henry Sherman, alto; Scott Bozorth, tenor; Geo. P. Wheeler, baritone; O. P. Graham, tuba. Some of the force is absent, but these who remain purpose practicing more than they have done of late.
—The Tacoma Ledger says: "Engineer Eckleson, having finished his work on the Snoqualmie Pass, last Monday moved over on the Tacoma Pass route, where work will be continued all winter, if practicable. Work will be done on one of the passes leading into Green river, which has not hitherto been explored, and report says that a preliminary examination shows the entire practicability of building a railroad through it, and the tunnel will be only 1,000 feet in length."

Teachers' Institute.
Y. M. C. A. Rooms, Astoria, Jan. 12, 1882. Institute called to order by Supt. W. W. Parker; Miss T. E. Brown elected Secretary.
The following named teachers were present: Messrs. T. R. Coon and H. Sloop, Mrs. D. M. Coon, Mrs. Josephine Robb, Misses T. E. Brown, Eliza Boelling, L. L. Allen, Florence M. Carnahan, Morry S. Eaton, Annie E. Trullinger, Laura L. Munson, Inez E. Stout.
According to programme the subject first discussed was reading. Supt. W. W. Parker introduced the subject with remarks which showed a warm interest in this part of school work. Miss Boelling conducted a primary reading exercise. Following this, general discussion ensued, participated in by Mr. Parker, Messrs. Eaton, Boelling, Allen, Mrs. Coon and Miss Brown. Following this, a class recitation of advanced reading conducted by F. E. Brown. The teachers evinced a wide awake interest in this subject, the discussion of which lasted until noon.

—Attention is directed to the notice that Leinenweber and Cohn give of the dissolution of copartnership. The old firm of Leinenweber & Co. will run the business as before.
—Astoria is becoming quite a boat-building center. Besides the large number of small boat shops always busy, we have had within the past few months the "Clara Parker" built first, next the "Chehalis," next the large fine steamer for the I. S. N. Co. which will soon be launched, and now we have under way the large barge for the A. T. Co., besides two or three more in contemplation. Every boat built here makes the building of the next the easier; and why should not we become a shipbuilding and owning community? We have the desired material and very cheap lumber. May the boat building interests thrive, is our wish.
—Avoid a galloping consumption by the timely use of HALE'S HOSEY OF HORRHOUD AND TAIL-PIKE'S TOOTH-ACHE DROPS cure in one minute.
—A Nasal Injector free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cent. Sold by W. E. Dement.

—GOLDEN'S LIQUIR BEER AND TONIC INVIGORATOR imparts strength to body and mind. Take no other. Of druggists.
—Get your legal blanks at THE ASTORIAN office. A full line of over two hundred styles.

Cruelty.
"Do you ever print poetry in the Tribune?" asked a young lady as she came into the editorial room yesterday afternoon.
"I suppose," continued the young lady, "that the literary editor is the person to whom I should apply for information, but I thought perhaps some of the other gentlemen in here might tell me."
The horse reporter, who had been compiling some exciting statistics regarding the number of animals that had trotted in 2:30 during the past season, abandoned this fascinating pursuit, and after indicating to the poet by the wave of his hand that she was at liberty to occupy a chair, spoke as follows:
"In answer to your question, Miss, I may say that not only does poetry sometimes appear in this paper but that we now have on our staff of contributors some of the most gifted songsters that the Golden West has produced, and that they are allowed to trill their melodies for the benefit of our readers every Saturday and Sunday. We aim to afford all persons who feel within their minds the surging of a flood of metrical melody an opportunity of depicting in vivid word-pictures the beautiful images that fancy has limned with delicate touch upon the rose-tinted chambers of the imagination. It matters not whether the horny fist of the sweat crowned son of toil or the dimpled fingers of a patrician maiden guides the pen which gives expression to these thoughts—all are alike welcome. From out this stately chimney that frets the sky in the rear of this establishment come forth in curious curl and fantastic quirk great clouds of fleecy smoke that wrap the structure in a white filmy mantle. Within one year after the establishment of the free-for-all poetry bureau the Tribune abandoned the use of coal for fuel. I dislike to give away the game, but you are so pure and beautiful; and your eyes have such a wistful, trusting look that I could not find it in my heart to deceive. Go in peace and by way of the stairs, gentle maid, and take the fruits of the God-given genius which enabled you to produce 'Save Our Mother's Hoops for Clara' to some other shop"—and with a pearly tear dimming his bright blue eye, the biographer of Maud S again turned to his work.

"Has anybody been to see me?" inquired the literary editor, as he entered the room half an hour later. "I had an appointment with one of our best-known poets."
"I guess she was here," said the horse reporter, "and I may say, without divulging any professional secrets, that when you pull up your string of suckers at the end of the season there will be one poet missing."—Chicago Tribune.
